

February 4, 2018

The 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Why do the good suffer?" That is the question that is the subject of the whole Book of Job, from which our first reading is taken. The unknown human author, inspired by the Holy Spirit, took a traditional story passed down among the Jews about a man named Job. He had everything you could want; he lost everything and because he kept faith with God, he got everything back and lived happily ever after! A nice story, but is it real?

The author of Job split that story: it is at the beginning and the end of the Book of Job. In over 30 chapters, Job is depicted questioning why he is suffering. Three friends try to console him but none of the "explanations" really is convincing. Finally God speaks to Job: His "answer" is not intellectually satisfying: "Who are you to question my ways? Submit to God's will." Even Jesus did not give us an "explanation" of why the good suffer. He accepted His suffering on the Cross: it was the Father's will.

The Book of Job is not easy reading for us: we expect some development of an argument.

The Jewish way of debate was to repeat over and over again. The repetition makes the point as strongly as possible.

In some way our sufferings fit into God's plan for us.

Thank You

Thank you to all for your kind wishes and prayers on the occasion of my official installation as "Monsignor". Thanks especially to Sue and Doug Garrett and the whole Parish Life Team for organizing and providing the Hall Reception.

CHOIR NEWS

TENTH ANNUAL FESTIVAL OF SPIRITUALS RETURNS!

The annual Festival of Spirituals will return to St. Helena's for its tenth edition, entitled We Shall Walk Through the Valley in Peace, on Sunday, February 11, 2018 at 3:00pm. St. Helena's Church Choir will host the Choir School of Delaware, the Perryville (MD) High School Chamber Choir, the DuPont Diversity Choir, and the newly-formed Ecumenical Choir of North Wilmington. The Ecumenical Choir consists of singers and directors from Aldersgate United Methodist Church, St. Helena's Catholic Church and St. Paul's United Methodist Church. Each choir will perform a set of spirituals and then all choirs will join for a Mass finale. The church will literally be filled with more than 200 voices. There is no admission, but a free-will offering will be taken. Net proceeds will benefit United Methodist Committee on Relief, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and the Lutheran World Relief.

REMEMBER!

NEVER leave your pocketbook or anything valuable in sight in your car. Recently thieves have hit our parish as well as the Methodist and Episcopal Churches. Items donated for the poor can be left in church or the porch during regular Mass times or rectory office hours.

However, the law does not expect the impossible nor can the fulfillment of the obligation according to the norm of the law be burdensome or dangerous. There is no obligation to attend Mass if weather or road conditions are unsafe or make travel dangerous or if one is unable to get out of their driveway or parked space. Those persons who are unable to attend Mass under such conditions may view the celebration of Mass on television, depending on local television schedules.
